DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-20 of U.S. Patent Number: 6,144,883, hereinafter '883 in view of US Pat. No. 4,819,647, hereinafter '647.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because in the claims 1-3, for example, there is merely obvious variation of the wording, especially for independent claim 1, of an invention claimed in claims 1-20 of the '883. However it is held to be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the connection wiring system made of insulated wires to the metal contact pieces of Claims 1-20 of the '883 for the benefits of establishing an electrical connection. The prior art '647 clearly depicts a central rib structure or connecting wire system made of insulated wires connected to the metal contacts (Cf. Fig. 5 & 6C, elements 48, 51B & 51M; col.5, lines 40 ff.) for the above conventional benefit. Alternatively it is held that the central rib structure of insulated wires is an equivalent to the means used for similar purpose in Applicant's US Pat. No. 6,144,883.

Claims 2 and 3 of the instant application require that the electrode contact pieces to be in oval or star shape. However it is held to be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the electrode contact pieces of Claims 1-20 of the '883 into oval or star shape of the instant application or in any shape or any configuration for variety.

Objected Subject Matter

3. Claims 4-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicants' disclosure.
